

TRANSPARENCY PRINCIPLE IN THE DCFTA

by Viktoriia Khavela

STATE AID TRANSPARENCY

Each Party must inform the other Party yearly on the overall amount, kinds, and sectoral distribution of State Aid that may have an impact on Trade between the Parties.

TRANSPARENCY AND DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Any requests from the other Party for particular information on any of its general application policies or international agreements that relate to or have an impact on this Agreement must be immediately complied with by each Party. Each Party should also set up one or more inquiry points to answer specific questions from the other Party's investors and service providers on any such topics.

ANTI-DUMPING MEASURES

The DCFTA includes prompt notice of investigations, public hearings or consultations, and the dissemination of pertinent information to interested parties as transparency measures connected to anti-dumping. Transparency in the application and execution of anti-dumping measures is further enhanced through notice of final judgments and the availability of appeal and review options.

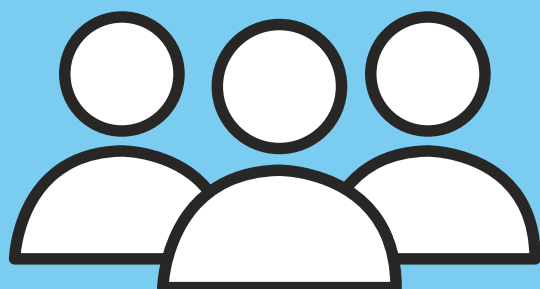

TRANSPARENCY AND EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

Without limiting the provisions of Article 68 of this Agreement, the Parties shall work together to improve knowledge of their respective official control structures, methods, and performance. This can be done, among other things, by having the Parties communicate information on the outcomes of international audits or other information, if necessary, and reports of such audits when they are made public.

NON-DISCRIMINATION

Each Party shall apply to interested persons of the other Party transparency standards no less favourable than those accorded to its own interested persons.
